California Adventure

By Justin Russell

Elijah's Generation's first adventure started off September 24th, bright and early. At 4 o'clock in the morning, everyone in EG was woken up and given fifteen minutes to pack their bags. All the guys and girls were frantic and confused thinking it was some kind of sick joke soon enough they discovered their thoughts on the situation needed to be reassessed. Seven hours later all the teams countenances changed when they saw the familiar ears of a mouse named Mickey. The team realized they were at the happiest place on earth and then the fun began.

Colorado Retreat

By John Scott

From the sunny side of California, all the way to the snow-covered mountains of Colorado, EG drove into a land of blessings, breakthroughs, and bears, oh my! Elijah's Generation piled out of their fifteen passenger van wearing all their coolest winter time apparel that had collected dust inside their Arizona closets. They arrived just before supper was ready at a home dubbed "The Shepherd's Inn."

Questions and "Quotes"

What has God changed in your life in one month of EG?

Sarah

In one month God has given me the opportunities to grow loyalty, perseverance and patience. He has used me to lift up and encourage others. God has also blessed me with trials and rebuke which I am learning to love.

Christal

God has done so many amazing and powerful things in my life within the past month. I have become much more aware of spiritual warfare and effective strategies and tactics on how to overcome the devil. God is constantly humbling me and taking away past mind sets by washing my mind with His precious Word and pouring out His love on me. I have been delivered from suicide, addiction, offense, hatred, selfishness and self-hatred. I am a new creation in Christ and I am so amazed of how far God has brought me and everyone in EG in this short month.
